

LIFETIME HORSE TRAVEL PERMIT
(Frequently Asked Questions)

1. I have lost my Lifetime Horse Travel Permit – how can I get a duplicate?

Fill out the ‘Request for Duplicate Lifetime Horse Travel Permit’ form which can be found on the UDAF website (<http://ag.utah.gov>) and submit this form with your payment ($10.00) to our office pay online ($10.00) to get the Duplicate Permit. To do this, open UDAF website (<http://ag.utah.gov>, click ‘Online Services’ menu item and then select the ‘Horse Travel Permits’ application.

OR

2. How much does a Lifetime Horse Travel Permit Cost?

$25.00

3. Do I need a Brand Inspection and a Lifetime Horse Travel Permit to move a horse?

No, you just need the Lifetime Horse Travel Permit. To get a Lifetime Horse Travel Permit, you will need an inspection. Look on the website for a list of local brand inspectors you need to call anytime you are selling or buying a horse.

4. Can I send my horse and my Lifetime Horse Travel Permit with someone else?

Yes, you can send your horse and your Lifetime Horse Travel Permit with someone else.

5. Is the Lifetime Horse Travel Permit honored in other states?

Yes, the Lifetime Horse Travel Permit is honored in all states and Canada

6. Can I get a lifetime permit for other species?

No, you cannot get a lifetime permit for other species.

7. I have had my horse branded; how can I get the brand put on my permit?

Return it to the office and indicate what the brand is and the location on the animal. A new permit will be issued showing the brand submit the ‘Online Add Brand No’ request. To do this, open the UDAF website (<http://ag.utah.gov>, click ‘Online Services’ menu item and then select ‘Horse Travel Permits’ application.

OR

8. I have had my horse gelded; can I get that change made to my lifetime permit?

Yes, just return the permit to the office and we will make the changes.

